Policy Statement

Potentially infectious materials must be handled with caution to decrease the risk to staff and patients at NxNE. "Universal Precautions" guidelines will be followed.

Procedure

1. All human blood is to be treated as if it is infectious for HIV and HBV. Universal precautions do not apply to feces, nasal secretions, sputum, tears, sweat, urine or vomit unless they contain visible blood.
2. NxNE will have gloves, pocket masks and CPR masks available. Gloves will be worn when any body fluid exposure is likely.
3. Clean-up of body fluids procedure will include:
 - a. Gloves are to be worn at all times and disposed of in bagged garbage containers. Hands are to be washed after gloves are removed.
 - b. Paper towels or blue pads will be used to absorb large volumes with immediate bagging and disposal in the trash.
 - c. Liquids in containers may be disposed of in the toilet. The containers will then be disposed of in bagged garbage containers.
 - d. Once the majority of the spill is absorbed, soap and water cleaning will occur, if needed.
 - e. Finally, a bleach solution will be used to decontaminate the surface.
4. Clean-up of spills on the carpet will follow the above procedure with the use of spray carpet cleaner instead of soap and water and bleach solution. If the spill is significant in volume or includes blood, the clinic manager must be notified. The carpet will need to be cleaned using a carpet-cleaning machine.
5. Bleach solution will be made as needed, for clean-up of human blood, and the bottle labeled with the date. 10% bleach is effective in decontamination according to the CDC. Data show bleach solutions lose about 60% of the concentration of available chlorine 30 days after being made, so the initial concentration of bleach will be a 25% solution (1 part bleach to 3 parts water). The solution will be discarded after 30 days.

6. Disinfecting cleaning wipes will be used to clean the examination tables after use by patients who have been disrobed from the waist down and at the end of each clinic.
7. Paper products, urine test strips, strep tests, tissues and other non-saturated waste will be disposed of in bagged garbage containers. (Saturated is defined as dripping when picked up.)
8. Sharps will be disposed of in sharps containers (red, labeled, rigid, leak-proof and puncture resistant) kept at the site of the sharps use. The containers will be disposed of when the containers are $\frac{3}{4}$ full. The container will be closed tightly and taped shut before disposal. Sharps containers will be disposed of according to the requirements of Portland Metropolitan waste services.

ATTACHMENT B

LIABILITY PROTECTION PROVIDED BY MULTNOMAH COUNTY

This attachment summarizes

- a) Multnomah County's approach to providing malpractice liability protection for licensed professionals who volunteer in Coalition clinics, and
- b) Multnomah County's expectations of Coalition clinics and their volunteers.

THE OREGON TORT CLAIMS ACT

The Oregon Tort Claims Act (OTCA) in Oregon Revised Statutes 30.260 to 30.300 provides the legal framework for liability protection for Oregon's state and local governments. The OTCA is designed to protect governments and their employees. The OTCA basically does two things:

- 1) It limits the amount of damages a claimant can receive from the state or a local government for an injury or other harm arising out of the actions of the government or its employees and agents.
- 2) It requires the County to:
 - a) provide a legal defense for employees against whom a claim of injury is made so long as the employee was acting within the course and scope of their assigned duties, and
 - b) cover the costs of any payment made as a result of such a claim (whether due to settlement, or a judgment of a court). The County pays for these costs through a combination of self-insurance and excess insurance policies. So under the OTCA, it is the government who is responsible for paying the costs arising from a successful claim – not the employee.

BACKGROUND

More than 20 years ago, Multnomah County decided to extend liability protection to licensed health professionals who volunteer to provide patient care in clinics that are members of the Coalition of Community Health Clinics. The County did this in order to increase our community's capacity to provide health care for low-income and uninsured Multnomah County residents. The County judged that Coalition clinics were supporting the County's mission of providing medical care to specific populations in need. In effect, Coalition clinics were acting on behalf of the Health Department which is part of Multnomah County government.

The history of negligence claims against Coalition clinics and their volunteers has been extremely benign over the past 20 years. To the best of our knowledge, no claims have been filed, none of which have resulted in liability for either the County or individual voluntary health care professionals.

THE ROLE OF MULTNOMAH COUNTY

The County designates County-credentialed licensed health professionals who volunteered in Coalition clinics as "agents" of the county. Agents enjoy the same liability protections as county employees as outlined above. In a practical sense what this means is:

- If a claim is filed against a licensed health care professional as a result of their service as a volunteer in a Coalition clinic, the Office of the County Attorney will provide a legal defense for the volunteer.
- If there are financial damages as a result of a successful claim, the County will pay these damages.

LIMITATIONS TO LIABILITY PROTECTIONS

It is critical to understand that there are limits to the County's ability to defend and indemnify Coalition clinic volunteers:

- 1) The County's liability protections apply only to claims made in State of Oregon courts. The County cannot assume liability for claims filed in federal courts (although federal courts are rarely the venue for healthcare malpractice claims).
- 2) The County's liability protections only apply to volunteers' actions that are consistent with the usual practice of health care within the community. Actions outside this usual scope and course will not be defended by the County, nor will damages be covered by the County. Examples of actions that would not be covered include:
 - health care practices that are outside of the usual scope of practice of a given licensed profession,
 - unprofessional or inappropriate social or sexual interactions with patients, and
 - any activities not directly related to patient care.
- 3) The County will attempt to position itself as the responsible party in case of a valid claim. However, the County cannot guarantee that it will be successful in focusing liability on itself; a claimant might succeed in making a claim and both against the County and an individual healthcare professional.

In December 2006, the Oregon Supreme Court ruled on a case known as Clarke vs. OHSU. The Multnomah County Attorney has reviewed the implications of this case, and is of the opinion that the liability protections offered by the County to Coalition clinic health care professional volunteers remains intact.

THE COUNTY'S EXPECTATIONS OF COALITION CLINIC VOLUNTEERS

The following represents the County's basic expectations and requirements of licensed healthcare professional volunteers who wish to receive malpractice protection from Multnomah County.

- 1) You must be currently licensed as one of the types of health care professionals that the Health Department designates as eligible for coverage. This includes but is not limited to: MD/DO, Dentist, Nurse Practitioner, Naturopathic Physician, Chiropractor, Registered Nurse, Retired Physician, Physician Assistant, Podiatrist, Acupuncturist, Optometrist, Licensed Massage Therapist, Registered Dietitian, Licensed Clinical Social Worker, Licensed Psychologist, Certified Laboratory Technician, Licensed Physical Therapist, Occupational Therapist, Certified Medical Assistant or any licensed or certified health care professional approved by the Health Department Medical Director on a case by case basis
- 2) You must submit a Coalition of Community Health Clinics Credentialing Application, and that application must be approved by Multnomah County Health Department before you are covered. The County will not provide coverage to any licensed healthcare professional who is not credentialed by the Health Department.
- 3) You must report to the County and any Coalition clinics where you practice within three business days:
 - a. Any restriction or limitation on your professional license that has been imposed since the time you are credentialed by Multnomah County Health Department.
 - b. Any restriction or limitation on professional credentials or privileges you have received from any organization that performs health-care credentialing.
- 4) When serving in a Coalition clinic, you must practice within the usual scope of your profession as generally practiced in the community.
- 5) If you become aware of any claim or threat of a claim against you or a Coalition clinic in which you serve, you must report this within three business days to clinic supervisor or director.
- 6) If you become aware of any problems in patient care, or situations which you believe might lead to a claim, you must report the situation within seven business days the clinic supervisor or director.

As a volunteer of the Multnomah County Health Department, you are protected by the provisions of the Oregon Tort Claims Act. The County will defend, save harmless, and indemnify you from malpractice claims and liability arising from your volunteer placement as long as you limit the scope of your duties to assigned tasks and perform your work in good faith, in a manner that is not reckless or with intent to harm others and report any claims arising from your volunteer work to the Multnomah County Health Department. This protection is stated in the Oregon Tort Claims Act, ORS 30.260 - 300 and Administrative Guidelines HRS.05.05 and LEG.01.04.
